

COLLEGE ANNUAL REPORT

DR.SR.SAGAYA MARY B

The Lord has done great things for us, we are filled with joy. Psalm 126:3

Good evening to the honorable guests , benefactors , fathers, sisters , parents and my dear students.

We will journey through this 13 minutes presentation to depict how this institution has been empowering the girl child for the last 10 years.

Slide 1

Introduction

“women are like trees they grow on their own accord, they put down deep roots into the whole being” by – victor huge

Women empowerment and gender equality are essential for global progress. Let us be clear we cannot build the future we want and achieve the sustainable development goals without the full participation of all women.

A strong women is fearless when it comes to facing hard situations. They are confident in who they are and what they believe, and in their example of fearlessness, they encourage others to be courageous and make a difference. Here are many strong women of the world who inspire us. We can all learn from their great example.

Slide 2

Lady tree- Depicting a tree with roots, trunk and branches comparing the growth of women and how they are empowered in a pictorial form.

The roots- going back to its origins here they get their identity from “where they are and where they have to reach”.

The trunk- The students empower and equip themselves before facing the society to discover what is their ability, capacity and educate themselves to build their inner selves with the means and values.

The sustainable fruits – After building one self they march out to contribute their best to the society bearing sustainable fruit which produces seeds and multiplies into many.

Through the following means they equip themselves. Beginning with education

Slide 7- Education

Empowering women – women are the key to transformation. It implants the action of raising the status of women through education, raising awareness, literacy and training. Women's empowerment is all about equipping and allowing women to make life determining decisions through different problems in society. Most of the studies have found that secondary education plays a significant role in increasing women's decision making power.

To encourage the girls to be more responsible they are encouraged to participate in the student council which is a platform to formulate and express their opinion and the rest of the school events to develop leadership skills and self confidence.
